

“Livelihood Challenges and Policy Solutions”

(One-Day Workshop in Gujrat National Law University on Sunday, October 07, 2012)

Objective of the workshop: Developing understanding livelihood challenges in informal sector among students of the university through urban street vending, exploring possible policy solution and drafting model legislation.

Schedule

Time	Session
10:00 AM	Why is India Poor?
11:30 AM	Break
12:00 NOON	Economic Freedom: The Forgotten Human Right
01:00 PM	Lunch Break
02:00 PM	Jeevika Campaign: A Case of Urban Street Vendors
03:30 PM	Break
04:00 PM	Working Group and Presentation
05:30 PM	Feedback and Closing
06:00 PM	End of the Day

Pedagogy of the session:

All the sessions would be interactive session with necessary use of various teaching tools such as PowerPoint presentation, documentary and group discussion.

Participants: Law students including the students who would draft model legislation on urban street vending.

Size: 30 Students of the University and 5 community representatives

Facilitated By: Amit Chandra, National Co-ordinator for Jeevika Campaign, Centre for Civil Society.